

MAKE NEW BUSINESS CONNECTIONS

Chamber membership connects you with like-minded business and community leaders who share a commitment to business profitability, growing a dynamic economy, and making our region one of the best places to work and live. At Chamber programs and events, you will make new connections and meet new business prospects.

What you can expect:

- › Join our diverse network of nearly 1,700 companies, increasing your visibility and profitability.
- › Develop relationships with key decision-makers and stakeholders at more than 175 Chamber events, including our Annual Meeting, C-Suite Perspectives, Partners Dinner, and Annual Leadership Conference—open to all of your employees.
- › Informative forums on economic development, business topics, leadership and professional development, and public policy issues give you an inside track on trends that affect your business growth.
- › Small business owners and entrepreneurs learn about the latest trends and ideas at targeted events such as Coffee with Leaders.
- › Access to a new affordable subscription-based membership for small businesses and entrepreneurs.
- › Grow your digital web presence through our online directory and gain exposure with more than 3,000 views (on average) per year.
- › Post deals for other Chamber members with our Coupon and Member News website features.
- › Improve the Google search results for your directory listing on raleighchamber.org by including your logo and a description of your business, as well as your social media handles.
- › Focus on the initiatives that matter most to your organization with events like our annual DEI Conference or the brand new Sustainability Conference.

Having been a part of the Chamber for five years, I have grown to love this community even more. The collaboration among groups and teams is refreshing. Get inside news, tips, networking opportunities and grow as a professional by engaging at a more active level with a diverse, highly competent team of Raleigh professional business leaders.
